CORONATION SONG.

Words and Music by S. PROSSER, D.P., L.C.M.
(Honours), Fishguard.

“I think your verse runs very well, and is very spirited.”—(Sir Lewis Morris).

All Hail ! to Good King Edward !
And to our gracious Queen !
Enthroned upon an Empire's love,
In Majesty serene.
Henceforth may Truth and Justice,
Prosperity and Peace,
With chains of gold the Earth enfold,
And War for ever cease.

Up with the Rose and Thistle,
The Shamrock and the Leek !
May power Divine the four combine
To form a crown unique.
The emblems thus united,
All hearts in love shall blend,
And let our mighty Britain's power,
Her Sister Isle befriend.

Long live our noble Edward !
Long live our gracious Queen !
Celestial light guide both aright
Throughout Life's chequered scene.
And when their course is ended,
May this our verdict be :
No Sovereign's Crown gained such renown
From Law and Liberty !
